International Women's Day 2016 Programme

Women of Palestine: living through trauma, building resilience

Running for over a week - Saturday 5 March to Sunday 13 March, this programme has been specially commissioned by Northern Women for Palestine - a group of activists from towns and cities across the north of England committed to campaigning for justice for Palestinians.

Through film, music, drama, poetry, workshops and photography, as well as personal testimony, we will explore the daily trauma of life for Palestinian women. We'll also be celebrating how they survive and thrive against all the odds - supporting each other, their families and their communities - by being politically and creatively active.
